

Customer JourneyMap:

Stages of Journey	Motivation	Information about the product			Efficient product	Evaluates Products		Payment		Receives Products
Activities	Wants to reduce the stress of waste management 	Desires to pick out a good product to get better waste management 	Analyses different products 	Compares it with normal bins 	Arrives to the idea of smart dustbins 	Information about synchronization of product and application 	Checks for user friendly application 	Thinks to pay after evaluating the product 	Payment done after knowing the warranty information 	Product delivered and its functionality is demonstrated
Feelings
Very Happy
Overall Satisfied
Unhappy
Experiences	To provide a green environment.	Satisfactory in the product working	Regular power supply required for operation	User friendly application	Technologically improvised bin for more effective usage	Server becomes down due to high traffic	Customers can use the app wherever and whenever they need	Only payment to UPI ID	Payment only after full evaluation of the product by consumer	Successful establishment of smart bins all over the city
Customer Expectations	Improves the environmental conditions	Expects a product that can improve management of trash	Thinks about better durability	Encourage recycling and drive down carbon emission	Product that can resolve garbage managing issues	Expects fast working of app along with product	Provide a great user experience either online or offline	No damage in the product	Future maintenance of the product	Rise of clean and healthy environment